Hi Taber CRC, Greetings from Tenwek. After some vacation time in June, I jumped back to work at Tenwek. July was a crazy month with 5 missionary families departing - some permanently and others for a year of home assignment. Add into this a busy hospital, teaching, a new intern class, and preparing for new critical care nursing students; it's been a little hectic, and I feel like I need another vacation. I will escape to Nairobi for a few days before the end of August - we have a new missionary family coming for 1 year, and going in to pick them up will be a good change.

Despite the craziness, we have had a few good stories.

Thank you -Annette Lievaart

Sunday worship: So often we ask God to direct us in our choices or we pray, "God please use me today." Much of how He leads is very practical and 'down to earth'. If we are looking with 'eyes of faith', we will see that God has supernatural timing and opportunities for us that are not 'coincidental'.

Church Family

We continue to pray for those in our senior homes or who are shut in and unable to worship with us weekly: Hennie Bouwman, Corry Vanderwekken, Rika Zuidhof, Rev. Jake Corvers, George Wolgen, Alice Wolgen, Hank Wikkerink, Janny Wikkerink and Rose Kuizenga.

Please keep Wim VanHaarst, Annalise Ypma, Jane Hamilton, Jim Zondervan, Koby Barnstable and John DeWolf in your prayers as they navigate their cancer diagnoses and those undergoing treatments. May God be near them, giving them strength, peace, comfort and hope.

We also pray for Ken Braun as he awaits the results of his recent biopsy. We thank God for the blessing of a son, Logan Jordan Van Hierden, born to Nathaniel and Carmen Van Hierden last week.

With grateful hearts, Herman and Diane Meurs joyfully announce the birth of their grandson, Bernard Akumalla Meurs, born August 11, 2026. Congratulations to his happy parents, Henry and Amy Meurs! Praise God, from whom all blessings flow.
