Congregational Meeting: Tomorrow night is our Annual Congregational meeting. In your church mailboxes you will find the printed agenda with the annual reports of the various ministries of our church. Pastor Brian will also do a special presentation on some of his work for his Doctor of Ministry degree. He will share with us some of the challenges we are faced with and how we as a church might possibly address them. There will be time for discussions in small groups following his presentation.

CONGREGATION: We ask for your patience and understanding during an adjustment period of learning a new program during Sunday worship. Announcements, Songs and Scripture will look different. We welcome any suggestions as we get accustomed to this new program.
