Council Nominations 2022:

Today's the deadline to get your ballots in, if you haven't done so please find the slips on the information desk in the foyer or you can find the link on the Church's Facebook page as well on The Bridge App announcements.

Registration for the SABC Church retreat opens tomorrow, Monday March 28th, and shall remain open until Friday June 3rd. Please provide the following information to James:

1. Number of attendees in your group.
2. If you require a room(s) or if you'll be staying in a personal camping trailer/tent.
3. Food allergies and/or medical dietary restrictions.
4. Food preferences.

Refugee Sponsorship Committee: There is a great need in our world to help sponsor a refugee family or families. Council has been approached by multiple people wondering if we would consider sponsoring a refugee family or two. Council is looking for members who would be willing to serve on a Refugee Committee to help us through the process. If you have a strong desire to serve in this area, please talk to your district elder or Pastor Brian.

La Semilla Coffee- Coffee for sale! La Semilla Ministries is selling some of their ground coffee to anyone that is interested. Each pound of ground-coffee is $20, and 100% of the income from coffee sales goes directly to the projects that Rob and Leslee Oudman are a part of through their work with La Semilla Ministries in Nicaragua. If you would like to purchase some of their coffee, or are interested in hearing more about their ongoing work in Nicaragua, please contact Phil Vriend at (587) 921-1177.

SABC Summer Camp Announcement:

- 1. Camp Registration is open! No matter what your financial situation is, there is a place for your child at SABC.
- 2. There is a shortage of male staff. Please encourage your young people to consider working at SABC this summer
- 3. We are in desperate need of casual relief cooks. These are paid positions. It is mainly weekend work. We would train and orient potential candidates to our kitchen and workplace protocols. Hoping to find 2 or 3 people that would be willing to work a weekend per month
